September 21st, World Peace Day!

World Poetry Running on Respect, Peace, Hope and Love!

Dear individuals, advisors, directors, organizations, groups, governments, businesses schools, families and supporters,

In 2015 the World Poetry Canada International Peaceathon combined the World Poetry Canada International Poetathon to add art, music, dance, festivals and other venues to promote peace in action. We had 53 countries participating which ended in another powerful exhibit, including a 24 hour video feed of films for peace and human rights at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver, BC.

This year we hope to include 65 countries with World Poetry Canada International 24 hour “Peace in Action” festivals, musical events, art, dance, poetry and more. We also hope to have another (our fourth) exhibit at UBC and a Peace and Human Rights Film Festival and have had an offer of some funding help.

Societies, groups, organizations, governments, families, clubs and individuals are all welcome to join and promote the event.

Examples of effective Peace in Action programs: Multilingual, intercultural readings, dance, peace and human rights videos, exhibits, school peace programs, International Space Station, peace buddy programs, peace gift poems, peace cell phone photos and messages, features and e-poems on the World Poetry Café Radio Show and on site and more!
